Dear Mr Meredith,

I expect you will receive many letters of different sentiments from various parts of the world -

May I add a short note to congratulate late you on your very conspicuous stand against the intolerance of racial disgregation - I know you had President Kennedy's backing but nevertheless you must have been through a very trying, and lonely time (even if in another way a hero)

I think many of people with our white skins must feel very ashamed of our natural clothing when we see this kind of animal behavior by human beings - (The behavior we saw via the daily newspapers about your situation)

I hope (and I know my two sons aged 16 yrs & 14 yrs of age share) with me) ^{you have} a very prosperous & happy future for yourself, and the Scars of hatred and intolerance with which you must have felt very deeply will vanish, and leave you free to enjoy your stay at the University -

Yours sincerely -

Patricia Dobbs -
